The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, January 5, 1931.

To the Honorable Senate and the House of Representatives:

I have the honor to submit, in compliance with General Laws, chapter 9, section 17, the annual report of the transactions of this office for the year ending November 30, 1930, the returns of the sheriffs of the several counties of money received by them, and of their attendance upon a court of record and the county commissioners; a report showing the aggregate vote, both affirmative and negative, on every act or part of an act which shall have been referred by the General Court for acceptance or rejection to the voters of the Commonwealth or any part thereof, or to the city council of any city, during the calendar year 1930; and a record of the work of this Department in respect to public records under chapter 66 of the General Laws.

There is also presented, in compliance with General Laws, chapter 221, section 24, as amended, abstract and tabular statements of the returns of the clerks of the courts for the several counties and the clerks of the Superior Court for civil and for criminal business in Suffolk county; as to civil cases, the number of law, equity and divorce cases pending at the beginning of each year in the Superior Court for their respective counties, the number of each of said classes of cases entered during the year, the number of cases of each class disposed of in previous years and brought forward this year, the number of law cases transferred to equity, and the number of equity cases transferred to law, the number of jury, without jury, equity, and divorce cases disposed of during the year, the number of each of these four classes of cases pending at end of the year, the number of each of these classes of cases tried during the year (not including number in which issues were tried to a jury), the number of equity cases in which issues were tried to a jury, the number of jury, without jury, equity, and divorce cases awaiting trial at end of the year, the number of each of said classes of cases marked inactive during the year under rule of the court, and the number of each of said classes of cases marked inactive at any time, pending at end of the year, and subject to dismissal under the rule, and the number of days during which court has sat for hearings or trials with jury and without jury; and, as to criminal cases, the number of such cases remaining at the first of each year in the superior court for their respective counties, the number of indictments returned during the year, the number of appealed cases entered during the year, the number of actions on bail bonds or recognizances entered, the number disposed of in previous years which have been brought forward for redispotion, the number of cases disposed of during the year, the number of cases remaining at end of the year, the number of cases tried during the year, the number awaiting trial at end of the year, and the number of days during which the court has sat in their respective counties for trials, hearings, or dispositions.

Insurance companies (under General Laws, chapter 175, section 49)	2
Trust companies (under General Laws, chapter 172, section 10)	2
Gas and electric companies (under General Laws, chapter 164, section 5)	3

The number of miscellaneous certificates filed and recorded was 21,547—an increase of 140 as compared with the fiscal year ending November 30, 1929. Of these, 16,802 were certificates of condition of Massachusetts corporations (under General Laws, chapter 158, section 37 and chapter 156, section 47); 2,540 were articles of organization of trading corporations (under General Laws, chapter 156, section 12); 228 were certificates of religious, charitable, social and other organizations (under General Laws, chapter 180); 713 were certificates of issue of capital stock of trading corporations (under General Laws, chapter 156, sections 16 and 17), and the others were distributed among 25 different classes.

The number of miscellaneous certificates filed was 2,209, of which 2,110 were certificates of condition of foreign corporations (under General Laws, chapter 181, section 12), and the others were divided among 12 other classes.

There were issued 35 certificates of change of name of corporations (under General Laws, chapter 155, section 10, and chapter 180, section 11).

Returns were received of the dissolution of 26 corporations by the Supreme Judicial and Superior Courts.

Under the act relating to the incorporation of clubs, charters were refused, in 7 cases, 2 charters declared void, and 6 applications for incorporation withdrawn. Under the law relative to change of name of clubs, 1 such application was refused.

Limited partnership certificates to the number of 24 were filed and recorded.

In the Corporation Division, 3,602 certified copies of the records and certificates were supplied—a decrease of 244 as compared with the fiscal year ending November 30, 1929.

LABELS, TRADE-MARKS, ETC. (Room 333)

By General Laws, chapter 110, section 8, which relates to the adoption and registration of labels, trade-marks, stamps and forms of advertisement, the duty is placed upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth of receiving, filing and recording such labels, etc., and of issuing and recording certificates of record. Under this law, labels, trade-marks, stamps and forms of advertisement were received, and certificates of record issued and recorded, in 204 cases.

Under General Laws, chapter 110, section 8, which provides for the assignment of labels, trade-marks, stamps and forms of advertisement, 15 assignments were received, and certificates of registration issued and recorded.

MARKS AND DEVICES ON CANS, ETC. (Room 333)

By General Laws, chapter 110, section 17, which provides for the protection of owners of cans, bottles, boxes, siphons and fountains used in the sale of soda water, mineral and aerated waters, ale, beer, ginger ale or similar beverages, it is made the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth to receive and file descriptions of marks, devices, etc., and under this law 3 such descriptions were received and filed. Under General Laws, chapter 110, section 21, as amended by chapter 37, Acts of 1924, which provides for the protection of dealers and consumers against the unlawful use and destruction of milk and ice cream cans, jugs, bottles, jars, tubs or cabinets, 13 descriptions of marks, devices, etc., were received and filed.

VITAL STATISTICS DIVISION (Room 334)

Under the provisions of General Laws, chapter 46, section 17, returns of births and marriages from 355 cities and towns and births from the State Infirmary at Tewksbury, for the year 1929 which were received in 1930, cover 74,122 births and 30,568 marriages, a decrease of 4,932 births and an increase of 1,486 marriages, as compared with the returns of 1928.

Under the provisions of the same law 52,171 certified copies of records of deaths were received, covering the period from January 1, 1929, to December 31, 1929, an increase of 729 as compared with the returns of 1928.

Medical examiners' returns for 1929 cover 8,097, an increase of 76 as compared with the returns for 1928.

Returns by clerks of courts and registers of probate of the decrees of divorce for 1929 number 5,028, an increase of 846 as compared with the returns for 1928.

These figures are fully compiled and analyzed in the annual registration report for 1929 (Public Document No. 1), and were available August 2, 1930.

During the year 2,776 certificates of birth, 1,105 certificates of marriage and 965 certificates of death were issued, a total of 4,846. There were 15,006 requests for records. Fees received from these certificates amounted to $1,481.04.

5,280 abstracts of birth records for school, employment and enlistment purposes were issued without charge.

There were 30,252 delayed records of birth and corrections of birth records received; 68 corrections of marriage and 26 corrections of death records were also received.

NATURALIZATION RETURNS

Under the provisions of General Laws, chapter 220, section 19, returns were received of the naturalization of 3,936 persons before the superior courts of the Commonwealth during the year 1929, an increase of 672 as compared with the returns of 1928. These returns were indexed and bound in convenient form for reference, as required by law.

CHANGES OF NAMES OF PERSONS

The returns of 1,352 names, changed in 1929 as decreed by the several probate courts, were received and filed in compliance with the requirements of General Laws, chapter 210, section 12.

ARCHIVES DIVISION (Room 438)

There have been made during the past fiscal year 140 military certificates, 21 typewritten copies and 11,498 photostatic copies of legislative records and files, maps, corporation records, finger prints, etc. The following fees were received: military certificates, $149.75; typewritten copies, $23.60; photostatic copies, $3,890.08; totalling $4,063.43.

The past year having marked the tercentenary of the founding of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, an unusually large number of persons visited the office to see the Charter which was brought here in 1630. Many of these came from distant states, and several were from foreign countries. Several thousand rotogravure copies of the Charter, in reduced size, were printed for public distribution, and many of these were given to visitors at the display of the department in connection with the state exhibitions at Springfield and at the Commonwealth Armory in Boston.

The division rendered much service to the Massachusetts Tercentenary Commission in the matters of designing the special postage stamp issued by the United States post-office department to celebrate the year; in preparing inscriptions for historic markers and in selecting sites for the markers; and in the preparation of the manuscript of the book entitled "Pathways of the Puritans," which was published by the Commission.

Three hundred and fifty copies each of two volumes of Lowell records of births and marriages to 1850, compiled by Essex Institute, and a volume of Dartmouth records of marriages for the same period, compiled by the New England Historic Genealogical Society, have been purchased and have been distributed to libraries by the Document Division. (Chap. 562; Acts of 1920, and Chap. 199, Acts of 1922.)

From the Massachusetts Historical Society have been received Volume XI of their reprint of the Journals of the House of Representatives of Massachusetts (1732-1734).

From Richard W. Hale, Esq., has been received a set of photostatic copies of many documents found in England relating to the Charter of 1629, together with typewritten explanatory notes. From Mr. Hale also have been received two replicas of the wax impression of the Great Seal of England of the time of Charles I, similar to that affixed to the Charter.

PUBLIC DOCUMENT DIVISION (Room 118)

During the year 1930 the following publications were received for distribution through the Public Document Division: 60,485 volumes of the Public Document Series, representing 76 reports of the several state departments, boards and commissions; 9,500 copies of the 1930 pamphlet edition of the session laws; 9,000 copies of the 1930 bound edition of the session laws, commonly called the Blue Book; 600 copies each of the Senate and House Journals, 1930, total, 1,200 copies (from the Sergeant-at-Arms); 454 copies each of the Massachusetts Reports, Nos. 264, 265 and 266, total, 1,362 copies; 650 copies of the Sixty-fourth Annual Encampment, Department of Massachusetts, G. A. R., 1930; 600 copies of the Proceedings of the thirtieth Annual Encampment, Department of Massachusetts, U. S. W. V., 1929; 1,800 copies of the Annual Proceedings, The American Legion, Department of Massachusetts, 1929; 800 copies of the Annual Proceedings, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Massachusetts, 1929; 350 copies each of the Early Vital Records of Dartmouth (Marriages, Vol. 2), Lowell (Births, Vol. 1), Lowell (Marriages, Vol. 2), total, 1,050 copies; 300 copies of the Journals of the House of Representatives, Vol. 11, 1732-34; 30 copies of the 1929 report of the Finance Commission for the City of Boston, which copies were received from the above commission; 10,000 copies of the Manual for the Instruction of Applicants for the Police Service of Cities and Towns in Massachusetts; 100 copies of the 1929 report of the Finance Commission for the City of Lowell, which copies were received from the above commission; 9,469 copies of the edition of the Manual of Fire Department Equipment and Practice; 648 copies of the 1928 Returns of Gas, Electric and Water Companies and Municipal Lighting Plants; 362 copies of the 1929 Returns of Gas, Electric and Water Companies and Municipal Lighting Plants; 5,000 copies of the General Laws Relating to Primaries, Caucuses and Elections, 1930; 300 copies of the Index to the General Laws of Massachusetts; 2,060 copies of the Statutes Relating to Savings Banks, 1929; 1,025 copies of the Statutes Relating to Trust Companies, 1929; 750 copies of the Statutes Relating to Co-operative Banks, 1929; 1,010 copies of the Statutes Relating to Credit Unions, 1929; 3,414 copies of the General Laws Relating to Corporations, 1929; 2,500 copies of the reprint of Vol. 2 of the publication "Birds of Massachusetts and Other New England States"; 10,000 copies of Vol. 3 of the publication "Birds of Massachusetts and Other New England States"; making a grand total of 133,415 volumes that have passed through this division during the year.

In addition to the above, the following were received for distribution in this division: 4,155 copies of the publication "Pathways of the Puritans"; 25,000 rotogravure copies of the Massachusetts Bay Colony Charter and 978 sets of State Constitution cards, for use by Registrars of Voters.

DIVISION OF PUBLIC RECORDS (Room 252)

Inspections

Under the provisions of General Laws, chapter 66, section 1, there have been made by the Supervisor of Records during the year 1930 inspections of the care, custody, condition and protection against fires of the public records of the departments and offices of the counties, cities and towns as follows:

Alford, Amesbury, Amherst, Arlington, Barre, Bedford, Belchertown, Berlin, Bernardston, Beverly, Blandford, Bolton, Bourne, Buckland, Charlemont, Chester, Chesterfield, Cummington, Danvers, Dedham, Deerfield, Dracut, Egremont, Enfield, Erving, Fitchburg, Goshen, Granby, Granville, Great Barrington, Greenwich, Hadley, Holden, Hubbardston, Lancaster, Lenox, Leominster, Leyden, Longmeadow, Lunenburg, Marlborough, Methuen, Middlefield, Monson, Monterey, Mount Washington, New Marlborough, Northampton, Orange, Palmer, Pelham, Petersham, Pittsfield, Plainfield, Plymouth, Prescott, Princeton, Richmond, Russell, Sandisfield, Sheffield, Shelburne, South Hadley, Springfield, Sudbury, Tolland, Tyringham, Ware, Warwick, Wendell, West Stockbridge, Westhampton, Westminster, Williamsburg, Wilmington, Worcester, Worthington.

During the year 23 vaults and 9 safes have been approved by this office.

Fires

On the afternoon of February 5, 1930, fire totally destroyed the Town Hall at Sudbury. The vault which contained the town records preserved its contents intact.

City Halls

The City of Woburn has begun the construction of a new City Hall. This building will also house the Police Department and the District Court. The City of Beverly is enlarging its vault.

Town Halls

The new Town Office building at Longmeadow is completed and occupied. The town halls at Leyden and Hatfield are completed and occupied. Alterations have been made in the Town Hall at Concord to accommodate the District Court. Two new vaults have been constructed in the Town Hall at Hingham.

Court Houses

Hampshire County is erecting an annex to the present Court House at Northampton; Bristol County is erecting a building on the Court House grounds at Fall River to house the Law Library and Registry of Deeds.

District Courts

Hampden County has completed its District Court House at Springfield.

Repairing and Binding

Records have been repaired and rebound during the year for the City of Attleboro, Towns of Deerfield, Rockport and Wrentham, Registries of Deeds at Plymouth, Taunton and Northampton, and Registry of Probate at Taunton.

Typewriter Ribbons and Stamping Pads

A number of typewriter ribbons are now being tested and if approved, will be published in our next list.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL AND AGENTS' EXPENSES

In compliance with General Laws, chapter 3, sections 39 to 50 inclusive, relative to legislative counsel and agents' expenses incurred or paid in connection with the promoting or opposing legislation during the last session of the General Court, there were 241 entries made in the dockets, a decrease of fifteen as compared with 1929.

Returns covering 239 of these entries were received in this office from persons, associations or corporations employing legislative counsel or agents. Two failed to file returns and were therefore reported to the Attorney General. Thirty returns appeared not to conform to law, twenty-two of which were later corrected. It therefore was necessary to report the remaining eight returns to the Attorney General as required by law.

The total amount reported as paid to legislative counsel and agents was $88,015.02; in addition to this $11,861.39 represented annual salaries or retainers apportioned and $50,539.00 unapportioned. Twenty-seven employers stated that they paid nothing.

PROCLAMATIONS

The proclamations of His Excellency the Governor for the observance of Lincoln Day, Arbor and Bird Day, Flag Day and Thanksgiving Day were printed and distributed under the direction of this office.

Of the Lincoln Day proclamations 11,000 copies were distributed to churches, schools, institutions, patriotic societies, postmasters and city and town clerks. Of the Arbor and Bird Day proclamations 10,200 copies were mailed to churches, schools, granges, agricultural societies, institutions, postmasters and city and town clerks. Flag Day proclamations to the number of 11,000 were mailed to churches, schools, postmasters, patriotic societies, institutions and city and town clerks, and 10,000 Thanksgiving proclamations were sent to churches, schools, postmasters and city and town clerks.

In addition to the above, proclamations were printed and distributed as follows: For the observance of Spanish War Memorial Day and Maine Memorial Day, February 15, 1930, 11,000 copies were printed and mailed to churches, schools, institutions, patriotic societies, postmasters and city and town clerks. On the decease of Justice William Howard Taft March 10, 1930, 11,000 proclamations were printed and mailed to churches, schools, institutions, patriotic societies, postmasters and city and town clerks. Fire Prevention Week was designated to include the week of October 15, 1930, and 6,650 copies of the Governor's proclamation were distributed to the fire chiefs of the Commonwealth for churches, schools and post offices. For the observance of Legion Week, beginning Saturday, October 4, 1930, 6,450 proclamations of His Excellency the Governor were printed and distributed by The American Legion.

A proclamation was also issued for calling together the members of the General Court on October 20, 1930, to observe the three hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the General Court, 500 copies of which were mailed to members of the General Court, justices of the Supreme Judicial, Superior and District Courts and city and town clerks. His Excellency the Governor also issued a proclamation concerning the opening of the Metropolitan State Hospital and 1,000 copies were printed and mailed to the justices of the Supreme Judicial, Superior and District Courts, institutions under the general supervision of the Department of Mental Diseases and city and town clerks.

For the observance of Armistice Day, November 11, 1930, 11,000 proclamations were printed and distributed to schools, churches, institutions, patriotic societies, postmasters and city and town clerks. A proclamation was also issued by the Governor on December 3, 1930, promulgating the seventy-first article of amendment to the Constitution, 1,000 copies of which were printed and distributed to the justices of the Supreme Judicial and Superior Courts, district attorneys and city and town clerks.

In observance of "Be Kind to Animals Week," April 21 to 26, 1930, and Humane Sunday, April 27, 1930, a proclamation was issued by His Excellency the Governor to the press. On April 30, 1930, a proclamation closing the woodlands of the Commonwealth to hunting was also issued to the press. On May 7, 1930, a proclamation suspending the open season for fishing in the Commonwealth was issued to the press and on May 15, 1930, a proclamation proclaiming the open season for fishing was issued by His Excellency the Governor to the press.

On July 10, 1930, a proclamation was issued to the press to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and in recognition of the courage, faith and many other sterling qualities of the founders of the Commonwealth. On July 25, 1930, a proclamation was issued to the press on Save-a-Life Period. On October 14, 1930, the Governor by proclamation closed the woodlands of the Commonwealth to hunting and on October 16, 1930, a proclamation was issued by the Governor to the press to open the woodlands of the Commonwealth.

PARDONS, COMMUTATIONS, REQUISITIONS, ETC.
